Red Cross Aruba In Action

Like always Aruba Red Cross is always in the community giving a helping hand, this was also the case as they shared out food, and also explained to the persons living on the streets how to stay safe in this time of the Corona Virus.

Shelter In Place!

Baby Beach Empty!

Yesterday was the first day of Shelter In Place, where you are not allowed to be on the streets without a valid reason, such as: Going to the supermarket, Pharmacy, food. If the police stop you, and you can't prove the above mentioned locations, you will be heavily fined. So please keep to the rules.

San Nicolas Fighting Back The Curfew

It has been obvious that the community is not accustomed to having a curfew, and the strong hand that the law acts in these times. A few people were arrested, and with their resistance the arrest looked much more violent than it actually was, however when people feel pushed, they push back, and this is why we are seeing fires, and other rebellious actions most start at 9pm the beginning of the curfew every night.

We urge the community to please just take this time off to enjoy family, and keep each other safe.
